Agenda X New Business

A. Procedural Recommendations for Bringing in Churches or Ministers into the CREC who are under some form of formal discipline of other denominations

Ralph Smith introduced his motion [original motion attached separately]

Ralph Smith amended his motion to the following:

Motion 1:

A motion "to form a committee to consider how best to address the issue of CREC churches having a formal relationship with persons under some form of discipline from other churches or denominations and the possibility of recommending changes to the Book of Procedures and/or the Constitution.

Motion 1 carried by voice vote with one dissent [15:1], Scott Snider opposed

The committee is formed: Ralph Smith, Chair Doug Hayes Kevin Gowen Gary Vanderveen Committee formation carried by voice vote with no dissent

B. Amendment regarding the listing of ministerial credentials – Jack Phelps Jack Phelps requests to make a motion, Doug Hayes seconds it.

Motion 2 Article IV of the Anselm Book of Procedures is amended by adding the following new paragraph: Upon receipt of a written request from the Session of a CREC member church, the Minister shall add to the list of recognized ordained men a lawfully ordained minister who is a member of that local church, but who is not currently installed as an officer in that church. Such action by the Minister shall be subject to ratification at the next stated meeting of the presbytery.

Be it moved that the language presented above be adopted as part of the Anselm Presbytery Book of Procedures and that it be forwarded to Council for consideration and adoption into the CREC Council Book of Procedures at the next stated meeting of Church Council, in 2011.

Motion 2 carried by voice vote with no dissent.

C. Report from Presiding Minister of Council – Jack Phelps

Jack Phelps gave an apology for not having constitution or book of procedures on the website yet The report had already been distributed, and he had nothing to add.

Bogumil(Bubu) Jarmulak asked a question about whether Jack Phelps would be reimbursed for his work as pm of council Jack Phelps responded that he will be reimbursed.

Ralph Smith: brought up the idea to form a committee to investigate other groups asking for support. Jack Phelps responded that he had the authority to do so if he should desire that in the future.

D. Discussion of Presbytery Ministerial examinations

The general consensus desired a longer period of time to be allocated for examinations. Also a suggestion was made to have the first day devoted to examinations, so that if necessary some delegates could skip the first day if they couldn't afford the extra time. Presiding Minister Hatcher asked that the future Presiding Minister take into consideration the discussion when setting the agenda for next year.

Presiding Minister Hatcher called for a short break at 4:30pm for examination committees to meet to ascertain if they could give preliminary examination reports. Meeting was reconvened at 4:39pm.

Agenda XI Initial reports from ordination recommendation committees

Dennis Tuuri reported for his group that they recommend Flynn Ayers, but some areas require further attention.

Ralph Smith reported that they have a positive evaluation for K.C. Rumrey, but that some areas require further attention, and they are waiting on an exceptical paper (no fault of Rumrey).

Gary Vanderveen reported that they had a positive recommendation for Jaeil (Jay) Hahn, with no further inquiry needed.
